LOCAL PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZERS KICK-OFF FIRST IN SERIES OF FREE EVENTS TO CELEBRATE NATIONAL GET ORGANIZED MONTHSM 2010

SALT LAKE COUNTY, UT – Professional organizers along the Wasatch Front are giving back to their communities by providing FREE services, classes, and events. The first in a month-long series will be held tonight at the Hunter Library (www.slco.lib.ut.us/hunter.htm) where professional organizer Donna Harper will teach “Get Organized with Clear & Simple; we make it Fun, Simple & Freeing”.

For more information on this week’s events, as well as upcoming events offered throughout the month, please visit www.utahorganizersgroup.com.

“January is the perfect month to get organized and start your new year off right,” said former NAPO President Standolyn Robertson. “Getting organized is one of the top 5 New Year’s resolutions people make, and with 4,300 NAPO members ready and available to assist, it is easier than most people think.”

About NAPO

Founded in 1985, NAPO—The Organizing Authority®—is the premier national association dedicated to the field of organizing. NAPO’s purpose is to share information about this growing industry and to define quality standards for the organizing profession. NAPO is dedicated to serving its members through education, networking, industry resources, and promoting the profession to the public.

For more information about NAPO and Get Organized Month, including tips on home and office organizing, how to hire a professional organizer, a calendar of events, and organizing statistics, visit www.napo.net.
